

“And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you?
For even sinners do the same”
(Luke 6:33)

The background is a solid teal color. At the bottom right corner, there is a silhouette of a mountain range in a slightly darker shade of teal.

What are the motives for us to do good to those who do us evil?

The image features a solid teal background. In the bottom right corner, there is a stylized silhouette of a mountain range with jagged peaks, rendered in a slightly darker shade of teal than the background.

1. By this we become like our Father

“...and you will be sons of the Most High. For He is kind to the unthankful and evil” (Luke 6:35)

2. Because our rewards come from Him

“But love your enemies, do good, and lend, hoping for nothing in return;
and your reward will be great”
(Luke 6:35)

3. Because it is to this that we are called: to be lights to the world and salt to the earth.

The background is a solid teal color. At the bottom right corner, there is a silhouette of a mountain range in a slightly darker shade of teal.

4. Because love never fails

“Cast your bread upon the waters, For you will find it after many days.” (Ecclesiastes 11:1)

5. Because our treasure is in heaven

"...provide yourselves money bags which do not grow old, a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief approaches nor moth destroys" (Luke 12:33)

6. Because out of the good hearts comes only goodness

The background is a solid teal color. At the bottom right corner, there is a silhouette of a mountain range in a slightly darker shade of teal.

7. Because we want others to treat us in like manner

“And just as you want men to do to you, you also do to them likewise” (Luke 6:31)
