

“Therefore do not worry about tomorrow”

---

Matthew 6:34

---

What are the differences between
CARING about and WORRYING about Tomorrow?

CARING

1. Today is well utilized in planning for tomorrow.

WORRYING

1. Today is ruined under the stress of the coming day.

CARING

2. God is in the picture; He is my Shepherd.

WORRYING

2. Tomorrow is my sole responsibility.

CARING

3. Every aspect in life is well taken care of today:

- Spiritual
- Intellectual
- Social
- Financial...etc.

WORRYING

3. Today activity is centered on securing enough money for tomorrow.

CARING

4. My limitation is acknowledged peacefully.

WORRYING

4. My limitation is a troubling matter.

CARING

5. Confidence for tomorrow is based on the experience of previous days.

WORRYING

5. Anxiety for tomorrow because of fear of the unexpected.

CARING

6. Working out my salvation and repentance is always a part of "Today".

WORRYING

6. My repentance is hindered under the overwhelming sense of insecurity.