

“...and He received them”

Luke 9:11

How did the Good Shepherd tend to the needs of His flock?

1. He listened to His disciples

“And the apostles, when they had returned, told Him all that they had done”

Luke 9:10

2. He gave His disciples His undivided attention

“Then He took them and went aside privately into a deserted place”

Luke 9:10

3. He satisfied the spiritual needs of the multitude

“He received them and spoke to them about the kingdom of God”

Luke 9:11

4. He healed the sick among them

“...and healed those who had need of healing”

Luke 9:11

5. He satisfied the people's need for food

6. He engaged His disciples in the problem and the solution to the matter of feeding the multitude
