

"A sower went out to sow his seed"

Luke 8:5

How is the goodness of the Lord and His righteousness revealed to us in the Scriptures?

1. As a Sower, He allows His seeds to fall on all kinds of ground

2. He regards every ground that bears fruits as good

“But others fell on good ground and yielded a crop:
some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty”

Matthew 13:8

3. As a Master, He pays those who worked for one hour the same wage as those who labored the whole day

“These last men have worked only one hour, and you made them equal to us who have borne the burden and the heat of the day”

Matthew 20:12

4. Because of His compassion, He forgives the debts of His servants when they petition Him

“Then the master of that servant was moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the debt”

Matthew 18:27

5. As a Vinedresser, He considers even the new wine in the cluster as a blessing

“Thus says the LORD: ‘As the new wine is found in the cluster, And one says, “Do not destroy it, For a blessing is in it,” So will I do for My servants’ sake, That I may not destroy them all”

Isaiah 65:8

6. As a Judge, He is ready to revoke His judgment and justify His people when they repent

“Then God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God relented from the disaster that He had said He would bring upon them, and He did not do it”

Jonah 3:10

7. As a Lover of Mankind, He never gives up even on a bruised reed or a smoking flax

“A bruised reed He will not break, And smoking flax He will not quench; He will bring forth justice for truth”

Isaiah 42:3

How is the goodness of the Lord and His righteousness revealed to us in the Scriptures?

1. He allows His seeds to fall on all kinds of ground
2. He regards every ground that bears fruits as good
3. He pays those who worked for one hour the same wage as those who labored the whole day
4. He forgives the debts of His servants when they petition Him
5. He considers even the new wine in the cluster as a blessing
6. He is ready to revoke His judgment and justify His people when they repent
7. He never gives up even on a bruised reed or a smoking flax